VOICE OF THE BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY

Vol 9. No. 101 Thursday, March 7, 1957 Provo Utah

Final Constitution Forum Scheduled For Complaints, Change Proposals

by Sally Arnold

THURSDAY'S FORUM will present the final opportunity for the Brigham Young University student body to air its complaints, ask questions and suggest changes in the proposed Constitution of the Associated Students of Brigham Young University.

The entire constitution committee plans to be on hand for the forum to discuss several controversial issues and to answer questions about new policies and institutions adopted into the proposed document.

COMPLETE reorganization of the executive council and establishment of a student court system as well as the strengthening of both executive and legislative powers are included in the new constitution.

As stipulated in the constitution the present executive council will be eliminated and replaced with a studentbody president and four vice-presidents.

THE VICE - PRESIDENTS would preside over the areas of social activities, cultural activities, student relations and finance.

Under this set-up the studentbody president will hold an executive power as "chief executive" and will officially represent the studentbody to the administration, faculty and the world.

A COURT SYSTEM outlined in the constitution will consist of a Supreme Court and other inferior courts as "the senate may deem necessary to establish from time to time."

Legislative activity is increased through the new constitution. The BYU student senate will be the sole legislative body and will have power to legislate pertaining to the policy of the studentbody, control functions of classes and may legislate pertaining to all functions financed by studentbody funds.

STUDENTS planning to attend the forum should pick up copies of the proposed constitution in the Student Coordinator's Office in the basement of the Student Service Center, and read them prior to the forum.

Diane Hatch, constitution committee publicist, has suggested that students formulate questions and suggestions before the meeting.

"Students wanting to change the constitution, add to it, or question it have this one opportunity to do so, or forever hold their peace," according to Miss Hatch.

FOLLOWING THE forum the constitution will be put in final form for administrative approval and presented to Dr Henry L. Isaksen, student coordinator, for the administration's okay.

Organization Presidents To Check Banyan Pics

Heads of all organizations on campus who are purchasing pictures in the 1957 Banyan should check their pictures in the Banyan office immediately.

Banyan staff executives have requested that anyone planning activity pictures in the yearbook check into the Banyan office between 4-5 p.m, any day before or including Friday. The Banyan office is located in the basement of the Student Service Center.

IT IS EXPLAINED that before, during or after a selection is offered by one of the groups, Wilcox will direct questions toward the conductor concerning the presentation, and items of information leading to the fun their enjoyment of the number by the audience will be given.

Miss Richards stressed this wouldn't be a lesson or workshop in music, but that it is designed to inform the untrained person in music about the selections so that better understanding of why the pieces are presented in a certain way will be gained by the audience.

POSSIBLY THE MOST interesting part of this enlightening discussion of the works will be in the presentation by Dr. Gates of his composition, "Oh, My Love Is Like a Red, Red Rose." He will show how he went about composing this work, and demonstrate how it could have been composed other than the way he did it.

Three sections make up the program, starting with the symphony orchestra playing Third Movement of Symphony No. 3 by Howard Hanson, and Piano Concerto in G Minor, by Mendelssohn.

A'CAPPELLA CHOIR will present a Negro spiritual, Soon Ah Will Be Done, and The Spirit Of Yelpeth Us by Russell Smolet will involve splitting the choir into two sections making a double choir for the number.

Final part of the program will feature Dr. Gates presenting his world premier composition with assistance from both orchestra and choir under his direction.

Preceeding the music department program, Rich Hall, Daily Universe sports editor, will present the Skyline Conference Championship trophy to Stan Watts, BYU varsity basketball team coach.

Opening Day Finds 1500 Receiving Polio Shots

Brigham Young University's polio clinic, opening Thursday at McDonald Health Center, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., has not drawn a majority of students.

As of Wednesday afternoon, only 1500 regular appointments had been made, according to drive chairman, John Marlow.

Plans for the second part of the clinic were also announced. Those participating in this week's clinic will have the second shot administered April 11-12.

Students will be charged $1 per injection, payable at the clinic, which pays for the vaccine. Health Center medical personnel under the supervision of Dr. Allan Barker will provide their services free of charge.

Blue Key, national honorary service fraternity, is coordinating the efforts of seven campus service units assisting with the project, one of the first of its kind on a college campus.

Candidacy Claims Sought By Universe

Candidates for Executive Council offices were urged Thursday by Daily Universe Editor-elect Mark Murphy to announce their intentions in the Daily Universe by noon Thursday morning.

"In order for each candidate to be completely represented to the voting student-body," Murphy said, "we would like to announce the candidates and their public platform planks in Friday's paper."

"Plans are being made to give the election campaigns complete coverage so that student voters may have an opportunity to examine the qualifications and views of each individual candidate," Murphy said in announcing Daily Universe election policy.

Candidacy announcements must be in prior to noon Thursday, Murphy warned.

Popularity Voting Set In Assembly For Y-Belle Beauty

STUDENTS WILL VOTE Thursday at the regular assembly for their favorite Belle of the Y candidate.

The popularity contest is one of five contests in which the candidates for "The Y's Fair Lady" are being rated. The others were beauty, cake baking, talent, and dancunk ability. The Belle and her two attendants will be presented at the Belle of the Ball Friday evening. This heels and hose affair will be held in the Social Hall and the ballroom of the Smith Family Living Center. The Y's Men and the Collegians will play.

ADVANCE TICKETS for the dance are on sale in the McKay Building, the Smith Building and the Eyring Science Center. The dance is 75 cents a couple.

Friday evening at 9 p.m. the block Y on the mountain will be lighted by the Intercollegiate Knights.

Youthful Master Pianist To Present Lyceum

THOUGH STILL [illegible] young, the Jerry Austin [illegible] of the Brigham Young University Civic Lyceum Concert Series. This year at 8:15 p.m. in the Provo auditorium is one of America's major pianists.

The Cuban-American wonder child [illegible] skyrocketed as soloist with [illegible] as the NBC Symphony, the New York Philharmonic, the Boston Symphony, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Chicago Symphony, and the Buffalo Philharmonic. He has also given many concerts in Europe, Canada, Mexico, Cuba and Australia.

His BYU concert will include "Sonata in D minor, Opus 31, No. 2 (Tempest)" by van Beethoven; "Sonata No. 7, Opus 83" by Prokofieff; "Three Impromptus Opus 90" by Schubert, and "Variations on a Theme of Paganini, Opus 35" by Brahms.

"One never forgets the impressions made by Jacob Lateiner," veteran conceptioner of [illegible] said. "He walks out on the stage as a mild-mannered, unpretentious young man of pleasing build, wearing horn-rimmed glasses. Once he [illegible] seems to [illegible] a subtle and wonderful transformation."

HE BECOMES colossal in size, but in his masterful presentation of the music. He plays with profound understanding based on scholarly and thought-ful study, but infused with such [illegible] fire and intensity [illegible] music glows and sings."

His playing has been compared with that of Horowitz and Rachmaninoff. He has recorded for Columbia and Westminster Records.

Songsters Warned About Applications

Songwriters planning to enter the 1957 Songfest should pick up their applications immediately according to Songfest Committeeman Gordon Coffman.

Songwriters who have not completed this application and returned it to the Student Coordinator's Office Friday will not be eligible for entrance in the Songfest.

Applications are now available in the Student Coordinator's office in the basement of the Student Service Center, and must be turned in there by 5 p.m. Friday.

Coffman said there will definitely be no late entries this year.

Nurses Earmark Variety Funds For Chicago Meet

Verna Brimhall, Borro Bay, Calif. has been selected to represent the Brigham Young University Student Nurses Association at the National Convention in May.

The student nurses recently presented a program in Salt Lake City to raise funds to send Miss Brimhall to Chicago, Ill., for the convention. Variety numbers and a skit, Science Fiction Theater A La Nurse, were given.

Those on the program included Judy Beckstead, Riverton; Eleanor Hacking, Wenatchee; Marilyn Jensen, Pocatello, Ida.; Evelyn Gentry, Denver, Colo.; and Willa Platt, Reno, Nev.

Others were Jacqueline Brandley, Provo; Judy Mallett, Idaho Falls, Ida.; Margaret Jacobs, Raymond, Alberta, Can.; Linnea Smith, Fairview, Mont.; Sandra Stonehocker, Rolla, Miss.; Cheri Morrill, Pocatello, Ida.; Wendy Lu Jackson, Salt Lake City, and members of the Kia Ora Club.

Banyan Staff Entertains

Banyan staff members will hold an exchange party with the staff of the yearbook of the University of Utah, the Utonian, Saturday.

The party is scheduled for 7 p.m. in the Smith Banyan Hall. Casual dress is suitable for the event.

Dinner, games and dancing are planned. Admission will be 50 cents per person.

AWS Gathers Program Talent Presents Radio Productions

PERSEPHONE RUNS WILD, is the next story to be heard over the AWS Previews program Saturday at 2 p.m. over KBYU.

The story is a fantasy about what happened the day Persephone, the Goddess of Spring, came to earth in the middle of the winter. According to mythology Persephone is the wife of Pluto, the God of the Underworld, and each year for six months she joins him in his underground kingdom.

This year, though, she left Hades and came to earth in Cranfield, New York three months early. The nutta-baloo she causes until Pluto catches up with her is very entertaining.

SHE'S ACCUSED of being a thief and her crown a stolen tiara; flowers burst out of the ground; the snow melts and ice carnival is ruined.

Portraying Persephone in the play is Kate Browning of Salt Lake. Others in the cast include Jim May, Baker, Ore.; Terry Lynne Telford, Bountiful; Jay Barclay, Blackfoot, Ida.; Penny Ashworth, Bakersfield, Calif.; and Steve Gardner, Berkeley, Calif.

Also in the program are Jerry Brooks, Phoenix, Ariz.; Ronald Wright, Riverside, Calif.; Steve Anderson, Spring City; and Brenden Curtis, Placerville, Calif. The script was adapted and KBYU by Leah Church. Delbert FUTURE PLAYS to be presented by AWS Previews include The Monkey's Paw, The Count and The Wedding Guest and The Hundred Dresses.

The radio program is sponsored now this year presented by the Associated Women Students. The program is heard every two weeks at 2 p.m. on the campus station. Everyone interested in auditioning for part in a future program is asked to contact Jean Barclay at Ex 4524.

Casserole Dish Easy To Make For Exam Week

by Deanna Barnum

Final examination time is about here, and student cooks are searching for easy-to-prepare meals. During the next week try this casserole dish. You can put it in the oven and study while it is cooking.

Ingredients for six servings are:

½ Pound Pork Sausage
1 Cup uncooked rice
1 Can chicken soup
1 Can Water
1 Cup chopped celery
½ Cup chopped onions
Salt and Pepper

Break sausage into small pieces and brown. Drain fat off and combine remaining ingredients. Bake in an open casserole at 350 regrees for 1 to 1½ hours. Mixture may need water if it gets dry during baking.

To complete the meal serve buttered corn, cabbage and apple salad, bread, cake with cherry sauce, and milk.

Make cherry sauce for six servings by heating two cups canned pie cherries. Reserve ½ cup of juice and into it blend 3 tablespoons corn starch. Stir this mixture into the boiling cherries and sweeten to taste. Serve over a piece of plain cake.

Diamond Jubilee

by Jeri Ann

Flippant Frauleins with fluttering hearts have organized another fleeting fan club on campus. The majestic male object of the organization is one of the athletic "heroes" on campus. We won't divulge his name in the interest of propriety.

A candid on-the-spot Diamond Jubilee reported accosted the ring leader of this group and asked her, "Has this campus hero stolen away your heart?"

The fluttering little debutante gracefully dragged a stethoscope out of her hip pocket and plugged it in the reporter's ears.

Meanwhile on campus many hearts have been stolen away, and a deluge of names have come in for this column.

Faye Telford and James E. King, Jr. are planning to be married between quarters in Vallejo, Calif. She is a graduate physical education major and member of the Folk Dance Group. He was a lieutenant in the Air Force. Her home is Vellejo and his is St. Petersburg, Fla.

Planning to be married in June in the Salt Lake Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, are Luella Robinson and J. Franklin Howell.

Joyce Stephenson is announenngn her engagement to Gary Cox. She was on the Junior Prom committee and will be Associated Women Students' secretary next year. They are both from Wendell, Ida.

Kay Brockbank is wearing the Viking pin of Bob Webber. She is president of Val Norn social unit and a 'V' Caicares member. He is Viking historian. Her home is Provo and he is from Bronxville, N. Y.

Diana Daniels recently became engaged to Alton Wade. She is a song leader from Long Beach, Calif., and he is on the Cougar football team. His home is Fillmore.

Loyd Wilson and Nedra Lund will recite wedding promises Sept. 4 in the Los Angeles LDS Temple. He is a junior from Woodland, and she is a sophomore from Los Angeles.

Kappa Deb member Lucile Bryan is wearing the Argonaut pin of Bob Frazier. He was president of Argonaut social unit last year and is a Blue Key member. Both are from Springville.

Another engaged couple is Ronald Bottema, Arcadia, Calif., and Janeel Davisson, Hillsboro, Ore. They will be married in the Los Angeles LDS Temple. He is a member of the men's chorus. Both are Student Program Bureau members.

Fite-Nite To Feature Boxing, Wrestling

by Dale Harris

The annual Intramural Fite Nite will be held this com... Saturday, March 9, at 8:00 P. M. on the main floor of the Sm... Fieldhouse.

Intramural Director, Bill Hafen, stated that Fite Nite is one of the largest intramural events of the year with as much interest this year as shown in the past.

Hafen expects a turnout of 600 this year which is an increase of about 300 over last year.

The evening's entertainment will hold for its viewers 11 boxing matches, 12 wrestling bouts and a five-minute show of gymnastics. Both the boxing and wrestling matches will be three rounds long with each round lasting one and a half minutes.

With the number of rounds being shortened and the round time cut in half, the boys move in for the kill early. The crowd was well pleased by the sharp scientific wrestling and the lightning fast boxing in last year's show.

There will be three champions back from last year to defend their titles. In the light-welterweight division at 141 pounds will be champion Curt Bushman who will defend against Joe Liddell. In the wrestling department, at 137, Lorne Larson will put his title on the line against Joe Dewey.

The 177-pound king, Richard Hunt, will go against Jim Lewis.
